| 2001-8-17 | CONSENT ORDER | ATLANTIC SOUTHEAST AIRLINES VIOLATION OF 14 CFR PART 382 AND 49 U.S.C. 41705: | 8/21/01 |
|-----------|------------------|--|---------|

This consent order concerns a complaint filed by an individual with a disability (Mr. A) alleging that Atlantic Southeast Airlines ("ASA") violated 14 CFR Part 382 for its refusal to board a qualified disabled passenger due to the passenger's disability. Part 382 implements the Air Carrier Access Act (ACAA), 49 U.S.C. §41705, and violations of that part also violate the ACAA. This consent order directs Atlantic Southeast to cease and desist from future violations of Part 382 and the ACAA and assesses the carrier a civil penalty of $5,000 in compromise of penalties otherwise assessable under 49 U.S.C. §46301.
